

True Poverty in New Jersey

A Human Services Academy Presentation

LSNJ will present findings from its latest study “True Poverty: What it Takes to Avoid Poverty and Deprivation in the Garden State.” The Study, based on the nationally established Self-Sufficiency Standard methodology, received wide coverage in the press when it was released.

The presentation will provide insight into the official poverty measure and how it is woefully outdated and inadequate for survival.
