OUR PROGRAMS

COMMUNITY OUTREACH:

a community building program, increasing awareness of our services and promoting wellness for everyone. Program includes:

Farmers, Families and Fisherman's Mark (F-3): seasonal Farm Stand, supported by local growers with weekly cooking demonstrations and nutritional initiatives.

Food for Thought: bringing Food Pantry offerings to local low-income apartments coupled with discussion groups covering various Health and Wellness topics.

VOLUNTEER PROGRAM:

Where everyone can give back to their community. Opportunities include, but are not limited to; food pantry, summer farm stand, office support, skilled carpenters/painters, and event planning. Groups are more than welcome!

HOW DO I KNOW IF I'M ELIGIBLE?

Everyone is eligible for assistance from Fisherman's Mark.

To use the Food Pantry, you must meet one of the following:

If you receive any of the following you are automatically eligible:

- TANF (Temporary Assistance for Needy Families)
- SNAP/Food Stamps
- SSI (Supplemental Security Income)
- WIC (Women, Infants and Children)
- MEDICAID

If none of the above, you may still receive food if:
